Dear Resident:

As part of our ongoing efforts to improve service to our customers, we now offer you direct access to your household's water usage data through a secure smartphone app called EyeOnWater®—at no additional cost to you.

With this free tool, you can view your daily, weekly, monthly and yearly usage activity and gain greater understanding of the amount of water you use. With easy-to-understand graphs and the ability to establish alerts, including identifying potential leaks, EyeOnWater can help you conserve water and save on bills.
