State of the City scheduled for October 10

Galveston, TX – October 2, 2023 – Residents are invited to attend the annual State of the City hosted by the Galveston Roundtable of Foundations in the Seibel Wing auditorium at Galveston College on Tuesday, October 10. Doors will open at 5:30 p.m. for light refreshments and the program will begin at 6 p.m. Admission is free and open to the public, and free parking will be available nearby on Avenue Q near 40th Street and Mike Gaido Blvd.

For nearly a decade, the Galveston Roundtable of Foundations has hosted an annual State of the City address in which the mayor and city manager provide an in-depth presentation on current achievements, projects and issues affecting the City of Galveston. There will also be a Q&A portion of the address where Mayor Craig Brown and City Manager Brian Maxwell will address questions submitted by residents in advance and written questions submitted that evening.

City staff will be available afterwards to discuss specific issues individually with citizens face-to-face, as will representatives from the Port of Galveston, the Park Board of Trustees, and the city's Families, Children and Youth Board.

To submit your questions in advance, please visit galvestontx.gov/stateofthecity and enter the question form.

The Galveston Roundtable of Foundations is a network of staff and board members representing numerous local charitable foundations.
